Historic Roots

Prior to the mid 1980s the present day Spectacle Lake Lodge had been operated as Scotty's Lodge under previous owners. It had catered primarily to sportsmen (hunting & fishing) clientele since late 1940s.

Below photo of Scotty's Lodge is from a postcard circa 1973.

Ad placed in Field & Stream magazine May 1970, p. 159. The ad was placed in monthly magazine throughout 1970.

Prior to 1965 Spectacle Lake was named Wolfsden Lake in Dickens Township, Nipissing District. To date, reason for the name change is unknown. The Geological Survey of Canada merely records that name change took effect on 22 January 1965.
